JUNETEENTH

On June 19, 1865, over 2 years after President Lincoln had signed the Emancipation Proclamation, General Gordon Granger rode into Galveston, Texas, and read General Order Number 3: "The people of Texas are informed that in accordance with a Proclamation from the Executive of the United States, all slaves are free." For the first time, slaves in Texas learned that they were already free. Some were shocked; many others celebrated. June 19 soon became known as "Juneteenth."

Nearly 25 years after the "Emancipation Proclamation" of the cross of Jesus, Paul wrote to the Roman believers. Some of them still did not understand what it meant to be free from sin's bondage. They thought they could go on sinning because they were under grace (Rom. 6:15). So Paul reminded them of their status in Jesus by appealing to a familiar fact: Whatever we submit to becomes our master (John 8:34). To commit sin puts us in bondage to sin.

The other option is to be a slave of righteousness. Salvation actually means a change of bondage. As we once served sin, we are now committed to lives of righteousness because of the freedom Jesus provides.

My brothers and sisters, let us become in practice what we profess to be in status—free!

FROM THE DESK OF DREW

Our Summer Series is off to a great start. We had a great lesson and two responses. I pray that we can continue to see the Lord at work in our Summer Series. If you have been not able to be with us during our Summer Series let me encourage you to make it a point to be with us this Wednesday night. I promise you don't want to miss it. We have some great things planned for you this summer on Wednesday nights. We will be having a BBQ Dinner on Wed., night July 2 at 5:30 p.m. The McCord's are coming out of retirement for one night to help with this dinner. We will also be having an ice cream fellowship after one of our Wednesday night services in August. There is much to get involved in this summer on Wednesday nights. Come join the excitement and share in what is to become to best summer at Wingate!

Sunday Sermons:

AM: Men Behaving Godly (Psalm 112)

PM: Second Sunday Night Singing

Courage

Courage isn't a brilliant dash,
A daring deed in a moment's flash;
It isn't an instantaneous thing
Born of despair with a sudden spring.
But it's something deep in the soul of man
That is working always to serve some plan.

Keep your fears for yourself,
But share your courage with others.

WILL POWER is the ability to eat
one salted peanut.

HIS SECURITY

Jesus Christ is no security against storms,
But He is a perfect security in storms.

He has never promised an easy passage,
Only a safe landing.

The greater danger for most of us is not that our aim is too high and we miss it, but that it is too low and we reach it.

Keenagers

Your trip to Demo's Restaurant in Hendersonville & Trinity Broadcasting has been postponed for a later date.

Happy Father's Day
Sunday, June 15

I started early with my chores,
 But even so I started wrong.
 My labor yielded me no gain -
 I should have started with a song.
 I battled time this trying day
 To find my efforts were a loss;
 I had to leave some plans undone -
 Tasks multiplied and I grew cross.
 Tonight I ponder while I rest -
 All day I fought rebellious tares.
 Yet that has always been my lot
 When days do not begin with prayer.

Do We Understand?

While President Harry S. Truman was in office, there was an attempt made to assassinate him. Endeavoring to protect the President, one of the guards was slain. With deep solemnity and sadness, the President commented, "You can't understand how a man feels when somebody else dies for him."

I would think, after such an experience, that the remainder of life would come very special. After all without the self-sacrifice of that guard, the President would not have had those remaining years. Each day would seem very precious, it having been purchased for him by the shedding of another man's blood.

Thinking of the cross we may all too casually utter the words, "He died for me." Do we see the suffering Savior dying for each sacrifice for "the world," for the whole human race, much more than we see it as being for any one of us, in particular?

In the old spiritual, "Were You There?", some meaningful questions are raised. This song is asking if we saw Him crucified, nailed to the cross. Did we see the earth plunged into darkness when the sun refused to shine? Did we see Him laid in the tomb? Such, contemplation of soul "causes me to tremble, tremble, tremble," so the song goes.

Once we are gripped by this sight of Him who "there on the cross was wounded for me," the remainder of life takes on a new and different meaning.
