THE UNPAYABLE DEBT WE OWE

Our gratitude is deepened when we remember the price others paid to help obtain freedom. In the United States, one such person was Richard Stockton.

Stockton was one of the signers of the Declaration of Independence. He was a prominent lawyer and a wealthy landowner. Because he supported the war efforts, he and his family were driven from their home. That home was sacked and burned. Stockton was imprisoned for several years and subjected to harsh treatment that broke his health. He died a pauper at the age of 51. Yet few Americans remember this hero who paid such a high price for the cause of liberty. His sacrifice is largely forgotten.

Even more important, have we become so familiar with the gospel that we fail to appreciate what our salvation cost the Savior? We rejoice in the spiritual freedom we enjoy by faith in the sin-canceling death of Jesus, but do we realize at least to some small degree the price He paid?

Are we truly grateful to Jesus for all He sacrificed to set us free spiritually? If so, we are to "stand fast . . . in the liberty by which Christ has made us free" (Gal. 5:1). No matter what else may be demanding our attention, let's take time to remember the unpayable debt we owe Him

FROM THE DESK OF DREW

Our Summer Series is in full swing. We have had some very good lessons by some very powerful speakers. If you have not been here on Wednesday nights this summer you are missing out. Over the next few weeks we have some great speakers lined up who are bringing their favorite sermon. Make your plans to join us on Wednesday nights this summer and see what "all the fuss is about."

Many of our number were out this past Sunday. We are in the vacation season. Please be careful this summer as you travel. It is nice to get away and relax and enjoy your time away from your everyday struggles. But, know this, you are missed. We look forward to having all of our number back and worshiping with us soon. In the mean time invite your neighbors or coworkers to join you as we worship our Father together.

Sunday Sermons:

AM: A Song for Tomorrow (Psalm 1)

PM: Stop Stealing (Exodus 20:15)

Thank you notes posted on the bulletin board from:

Nathan & Classie Elkins (Wingate & Life Group 2),
The Wair Family, Hallie Weaver

Tomorrow cannot be found on God's calendar.

Tomorrow sounds so innocent, but it is life's most dangerous word.

Tomorrow is the road that leads to the town called Never.

Tomorrow is the barred and bolted door that shuts people out of heaven.

Tomorrow is the nursemaid of hell.

Tomorrow is Satan's word. Those who expect to repent tomorrow usually die today. Don't count on tomorrow!

Time Bank

Let's suppose that you had a bank that each morning credited your account with $1440, with one condition: Whatever part you had failed to use during the day will be erased from your account - no balance to be carried over.

What would you do?

You'd draw out every cent every day and use it to the best advantage.

Well, you do have such a bank, and its name is TIME. Every morning it credits you with 1440 minutes. It rules off as forever lost whatever portion of this you have failed to invest to good purpose. Nor is there any drawing against tomorrow.

In praying we must not forget that our prayers are to be answered. Some are answered just as we wish; some are answered in a way different from what we wish - in a better way! Some are answered by a change in us; some by a change in others. Some are answered by the giving of a greater strength to bear trials, and some by the lifting of the trials. Some at once; some in years to come; and some await eternity.

I know not if the blessing sought
Will come in just the way I thought,
But leave my prayer with Him alone
Whose will is wiser than my own,
Assured that He will grant my quest
Or Send some answer far more blessed.

No Anxious Care (Philippians 4:6)

"Be anxious for nothing..."

How could my heart be anxious?
How could my mind be aught but calm and bold?
When He who keeps the universe in motion
Within His hand my little life doth hold?
If He can hang the earth in space, and guild its orbit,
If He can make the winds, and halt their play,
Full well I know He'll keep my soul from faltering,
And guide it surely in His chosen way.
