SILENT HELPER

The discovery of penicillin revolutionized health care. Prior to the 1940s, bacterial infections were often fatal. Since then, penicillin has saved countless lives by killing harmful bacteria. The men who recognized its potential and developed it for widespread use won a Nobel Prize in 1945.

Long before the discovery of penicillin, other silent killers were at work saving lives by destroying bacteria. These silent killers are white blood cells. These hard workers are God's way of protecting us from disease. No one knows how many invasions they have stopped or how many lives they have saved. They receive little recognition for all the good they do.

The Lord gets similar treatment. He often gets blamed when something goes wrong, but He seldom gets credit for all the things that go right. Every day people get up, get dressed, drive to work or school or the grocery store, and return safely to their families. No one knows how many times God has protected us from harm. But when there is a tragedy, we ask, "Where was God?"

When I consider all the wonderful things that God does silently on my behalf each day (Isa. 25:1), I realize that my list of praises should be much longer than my list of petitions

-Drew Crosby

FROM THE DESK OF DREW

It was good to be together again this past Sunday. We had a good day. We had a large number of visitors at our morning service. As you look around you each Sunday try to notice someone you might not know. Be sure and welcome them and let them know how excited you are that they decided to visit with us! You never know how far your encouraging word may go in leading someone to Christ or persuading someone to join us here.

Our Summer Series is in full swing and we continue to have some outstanding lessons from some of the most sought after speakers in our brotherhood. Next Wed. night we will have a special session just for our young people. Marlin Connelly is known for his "Chalk Talks," and he will be doing one for our young people right before services start next Wed. night. Make your plans now to join us!

Sunday Sermons:

AM: The King and His Throne (Acts 10:36)
PM: Truth or Consequences (Exodus 20:16)

Worth Repeating

"Some primitive tribes paint their faces so that their gods cannot recognize them when they kill. We may smile at such absurdity, but western man is no different. He thinks that God, who made his eyes, cannot see his sin. But it is the sinner, and not God, who is blind."

"Yet they say, the Lord does not see, nor does the God of Jacob understand." Psalm 94:7

"And there is no creature hidden from His sight, but all things are naked and open to the eyes of Him to whom we must give account."

Hebrews 4:13

Very Personal Questions

- What will you be doing tonight that will be more important than the meeting of the church?
- Would you be in favor of discontinuing Bible classes for children and adults?
- If we take a vote to quit midweek church meetings, would your vote be consistent with your practice?
- Have you ever prayed that you want to do the best you can to build up the church?
- Do YOU put the LORD first in everything that you do?

Dying

- First, I was dying to start school.
- Then I was dying to get out of elementary school to enter middle school.
- Then I was dying to get out of middle school to enter high school.
- Then I was dying to finish high school and start college.
- Then I was dying to marry and have children.
- And then I was dying for my children to get old enough so I could go back to work.
- But then, I was dying to retire.
- And now I'm dying...and suddenly I realize I forgot to live.

On the lighter side!

Facts & Faith

The preacher was speaking on the relationship between "fact" and "faith".

"That you are sitting in front of me here in church is a fact," he said, "That I am speaking to you from the pulpit is fact, but it is only faith that makes me believe that any of you are listening."

12 sons of Jacob

A year or two ago, as I was teaching second grade at a Christian school in the Detroit area, the students were trying to learn the 12 sons of Jacob. Bobby recited, "Reuben, Simeon, Levi, Judah, Issachar, Zebulun..." then finished, "...Donner and Blitzen!"

The Fiddle

The occasion was an amateur musical. The kind-hearted hostess, spying a lonely-looking little man huddled in a corner of the room, paused to make conversation. "Tell me," she asked, "do you play any musical instrument?" "Not away from home," the little man replied. "How peculiar," remarked the hostess. "What instrument do you play at home?" "Second fiddle," the little man replied.

Marital Status

The young lady was applying for the secretarial position at the church. She came to the question. "Marital status" - She replied without hesitation "Hopeful."

How Funny

Funny, we call God our Father and Jesus our Brother, but find it hard to introduce them to our family.
