

Where the Rubber Meets the Road

John 20:24-25

Introduction

- The only disciple that has ever given us a nickname is the one that is discussed in this passage of scripture, and from this disciple we get the nickname "Doubting Thomas." In this case, Thomas earned the label.
- If you have never accepted Jesus Christ as your Lord and as your God and as your Savior, you are a doubter. I want to help you deal with your doubt and I want you to go from being a doubter to a disciple. Thomas can help you do that today.

Discussion

◇ How His Doubt Was Caused

- John 20:24-25

◇ How His Doubt Was Challenged

- John 20:26-27

◇ How His Doubt Was Changed

- John 20:28

◇ How His Doubt Was Corrected

- John 20:29

Conclusion

- If you will put your hand in the nail-scarred hand, Jesus will receive you. Friend, you will find out when you walk through death's door, and you have to stand before a holy God, that is where the rubber hits the road.
