

Haste Makes Waste

Genesis 25:19-34

Introduction

- There are six great days in the life of an individual who lives a normal life span. The first great day is when he is born. The next great day is when he is saved. The third great day is when he is married. The fourth great day is when he has his first child. The next great day is when he has his first grandchild. The last great day is the day he dies.
- Keep in mind as you study this story that there is more than meets the eye. There is a surface truth, but there is also a deeper truth. You are going to see how the children produced by this marriage, and the differences and division between them, pictures the struggle between the flesh and the spirit in every child of God.

◇ A Strange Battle

- Genesis 25:22-27

◇ A Stolen Birthright

- Genesis 25:31-34

Conclusion

Now there is a bargain waiting for you. You can either choose this world's secular stew that you can see, or God's blessed birthright that you cannot see. One is temporary, the other is eternal. One will send you to hell, the other will take you to heaven. Choose carefully, for haste makes waste.
