

A New Hope

Jeremiah 18:1-10

Introduction

- In this passage we find that we are the clay, God is the potter and life is the wheel, and we can learn why with God there is always the possibility of new hope for anyone no matter how far they may have crossed over to the dark side.
- This little parable tells us three things about how God deals with all of us.

Discussion

◇ God Is Always Working On Me

- Jeremiah 18:6

◇ God Is Always Wanting What Is Best For Me

- Jeremiah 18:4

◇ God Is Always Willing To Start Over With Me

- Jeremiah 18:4

Conclusion

- Perhaps you are a follower of God already, but you've gotten off on the wrong track. You have slipped over into the dark side and your life has become marred and scarred because of it. God can take you right where you are, remake you, remold you, reshape you into what He wants you to be and take you to where you need to be, because He is the God always of "A New Hope."
