

The World's Most Dangerous Weapon

James 3:1-12

Introduction

- There is a weapon that is more powerful than any other weapon known to man. And it has been in existence since the creation of mankind, it has been known to start wars, ruin friendships, and spark national revolutions. It has killed more, ruin more reputations, wrecked more homes, split more churches, driven more men out of the ministry and caused more hatred than any other weapon in the world.
- Here, James is preoccupied with that animal, that minute part of the body called the tongue. He makes 3 important observations concerning the tongue.

Discussion

◇ The Dynamic Power of the Tongue

- James 3:1-5

◇ The Dangerous Poison of the Tongue

- James 3:5-8

◇ The Divine Purpose of the Tongue

- James 3:9-12

Conclusion

- Now the question comes how can we get a hold of this thing called the tongue because if you don't get a hold of the tongue surely the tongue will have a strangle hold on you.
