

Honoring the Name of God

Exodus 20:7

Introduction

- What's in a name? God says a lot when it is His name. That's what the third Commandment is all about.
- When we think of misusing God's name or using His name in vain, we think of swearing. Swearing is a real bad use of God's name but it is not the only bad use of His name. Here are some different ways you can use God's name in vain:

Discussion

◇ Using God's Name in Vain

- Exodus 20:7

◇ Using God's Name With Value

- Exodus 20:7

Conclusion

- You need to tell God you're sorry and apologize for misusing His name. Ask for His forgiveness. Then, give him your heart and your mouth.
- Start controlling the input to your head and heart. The language you listen to, the places you go. Then, practice His presence. You wouldn't usually use someone's name in vain if they were standing beside you.
