

A Memorial Day Moment

Mark 14:3-9

Introduction

- Memorial Day not only recognizes a national sacrifice, but a spiritual sacrifice as well. In other words, we not only commemorate the blood that was shed to ensure our national freedom; but, we also commemorate the blood that was shed to ensure our spiritual freedom, as well, by the Lord Jesus Christ.
- In 3 of the Gospels, Matthew, Mark and John we find a special Memorial Day moment. It involves a lady by the name of Mary who came to pay a special tribute to the sacrifice of the Lord Jesus Christ. I am drawn to Mark's account of the story for several reasons

Discussion

◇ An Act Graciously Recorded

- Mark 14:8

◇ An Act Gladly Received

- Mark 14:4-6

◇ An Act Gloriously Remembered

- Mark 14:9

Conclusion

- As we think of Him giving His best for us, may we, like Mary, give our best to Him, in appreciation and adoration of a special Memorial Day moment.
